Sana will not exercise any rights to suspend Services, impose late charges or change payment terms under Section 7.2 (Payment Terms) and Section 7.4 (Suspension of Service and Acceleration) with respect to an overdue amount for so long as Subscriber is disputing the overdue amount in good faith. The Parties agree to cooperate diligently and in good faith to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) days before exercising any rights under this Agreement.

7.6 Taxes

Fees for Services are exclusive of Taxes. Subscriber is responsible for paying all Taxes associated with its purchases under the Agreement. If Sana is obligated by law to pay or collect Taxes for which Subscriber is responsible, Sana will invoice Subscriber the corresponding amount and Subscriber will pay that amount unless Subscriber can provide a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate tax authority. Subscriber will provide Sana any information Sana reasonably requests to determine whether Sana is obligated to collect Taxes. Sana is solely responsible for Taxes assessable against its income, property, and employees.

8 Confidentiality

8.1 Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means all information disclosed by a Party ("Disclosing Party") to the other Party ("Receiving Party"), whether orally or in writing, that is designated as confidential or, given the nature of the information and the circumstances of disclosure, should be understood to be confidential. Subscriber's Confidential Information includes the Subscriber Data; Sana's Confidential Information includes any information received or obtained, such as proprietary methods, documentation or technology, relating to the Services; and Confidential Information of each Party includes but is not limited to the terms and conditions of the Agreement and all Service Order Forms, including pricing, business and marketing plans, technology and technical information, product plans and designs, and business processes disclosed by each Party in connection with the Agreement. Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is at the time of disclosure, or later becomes, generally known to the public through no fault of Receiving Party; (b) was known to the Receiving Party with no obligation of confidentiality prior to disclosure by Disclosing Party, as proven by records of Receiving Party; (c) is disclosed to Receiving Party by a third-party who did not directly or indirectly obtain the information subject to any confidentiality obligation, or (d) is at any time independently developed by Receiving Party without the use of Disclosing Party's Confidential Information as proven by records of Receiving Party. For the avoidance of doubt, the non-disclosure obligations set forth in this "Confidentiality" section apply to Confidential Information exchanged between the Parties in connection with the evaluation of additional Sana services.

8.2 Protection of Confidential Information

As between the parties, each party retains all ownership rights in and to its Confidential Information. Except as provided in Section 8.3 (Compelled Disclosure) Receiving Party shall not disclose or otherwise make available any Confidential Information of Disclosing Party to anyone except those of its employees, directors, attorneys, agents, subcontractors, and consultants who: (a) need to know the Confidential Information in connection with the purpose of the Agreement and (b) who have previously agreed to be bound by confidentiality obligations no less protective than those in the Agreement. Each Party shall (x) safeguard all Confidential Information of the other Party with at least the same degree of care (but no less than reasonable care) as it uses to safeguard its own confidential information and (y) not use any Confidential Information of the other Party for any purpose outside the scope of the Agreement. Neither party will disclose the terms of this Agreement or any Service Order Form to any third party other than its Affiliates, legal counsel and accountants without the other party's prior written consent, provided that a party that makes any such disclosure to its Affiliate, legal counsel or accountants will remain responsible for such Affiliate's, legal counsel's or accountant's compliance with this "Confidentiality" section.

8.3 Compelled Disclosure

If Receiving Party is compelled by applicable law, stock exchange regulations, by order of a court or a government agency or authority to disclose Confidential Information of Disclosing Party, then to the extent legally permitted, Receiving Party shall provide Disclosing Party with prior notice of the compelled disclosure and reasonable assistance, at Disclosing Party's cost, if Disclosing Party wishes to contest the compelled disclosure. Any compelled disclosure shall be limited to the extent required and shall be subject to confidentiality protections to the extent practicable. If Receiving Party is compelled by law to disclose Disclosing Party's Confidential Information as part of a civil proceeding to which Disclosing Party is a Party, and Disclosing Party is not contesting the disclosure, Disclosing Party will reimburse Receiving Party for its reasonable cost of compiling and providing secure access to that Confidential Information.

8.4 General Know-how

Sana shall not be prevented or restricted from developing and using any techniques, ideas, concepts, information or know-how relating to methods or processes of general application which can be recalled only from the unaided memories of Sana Personnel provided that in doing so there is no infringement of the Intellectual Property Rights of Subscriber and provided such use does not constitute a breach of this Section 8 (Confidentiality).

8.5 Remedy

The Parties acknowledge that damages may not be an adequate remedy for any breach of this Section. Each party shall be entitled to seek any legal or equitable relief, including an injunction, upon the breach (or reasonably anticipated breach) of any part of this Section 8 (Confidentiality).

8.6 Return and Destruction

Upon written request by the Disclosing Party and in any event upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy (or if embodied electronically, permanently erase) Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party, all as directed by the Disclosing Party. The Receiving Party shall thereafter certify compliance with the foregoing in writing.

Sana disclaims any warranty that the operation of the Services will be error-free or uninterrupted; however, Sana will make commercially reasonable efforts to minimize disruptions and resolve any reported issues promptly.

11 Mutual Indemnification

11.1 Indemnification by Sana

- 11.1.1 Sana will indemnify and defend Subscriber and its Affiliates, including its Affiliates' officers, directors, and employees, against any and all third-party claims, demands, suits or proceedings (each a "Claim Against Subscriber") and all related judgments, liabilities, awards, damages, costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, arising out of or in connection with (i) the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of Sana in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement; (ii) a breach of applicable laws in the provision of the Services to Subscriber, for so long as Subscriber's access or use is in accordance with the Agreement; or (iii) the Services infringe or misappropriate any third-party's Intellectual Property Rights, subject to section 11.3.

- 11.1.3 If Sana receives information and reasonable evidence about an infringement or misappropriation claim related to the Services, Sana may in its discretion and at no cost to Subscriber (i) modify the Service so that it no longer infringes or misappropriates, without breaching Sana' obligations under Section 3 (Sana' Obligations); (ii) obtain a license for Subscriber's continued use of that service in accordance with the Agreement; or (iii) if strictly required, terminate Subscriber's subscription for the affected portion of the Service upon twenty (20) calendar days written notice and refund Subscriber any prepaid fees covering the remainder of the relevant subscription term for the terminated portion of the Services.

11.2 Indemnification by Subscriber

Subscriber will indemnify and defend Sana and its Affiliates, including its Affiliates' officers, directors, and employees, against any and all third-party claims, demands, suits or proceedings (each a "Claim Against Sana") and all related judgments, liabilities, awards, damages, costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, arising out of or in connection with, (i)

12 Limitations of Liability

- 12.1 In no event will a Party or its Affiliates have any liability arising out of or related to this Agreement for any lost profits, revenues, lost opportunities, goodwill or indirect, special, incidental, or consequential, business interruption or punitive damages or any other indirect damage or loss, regardless of the theory of liability.

- 12.3 The above limitations will not limit Subscriber' and its Affiliate's payment obligations under Section 7 (Fees and Payment), either Party's liability under Section 11 (Indemnification) and Section 8 (Confidentiality), either Party's wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or either Party's liability that cannot, as a matter of law, be limited or excluded ("Excluded Claims").
- 12.4 For any breach of Section 4.3 (Security and Data Protection) each party's aggregate liability shall be subject to a liability super cap which shall not exceed the lower of (i) ten times (10x) the amount actually paid or payable to Sana under this Agreement within the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the event giving rise to liability; or (ii) 25 million SEK (the "Liability Super Cap").
- 12.5 Any claims for damages by either Party shall be submitted to the other Party no later than six (6) months from the time such Party became aware, or should have reasonably become aware of the event giving rise to the claim, however, never later than six (6) months from the expiration or termination of the Agreement.

13 Force Majeure

- 13.1 Neither Party will be liable for failure to perform or inadequate performance under the Agreement to the extent caused by a condition that was beyond the Party's reasonable control and which substantially affects the Party's or its sub-suppliers' or subcontractors' performance, including, for example, a natural disaster, epidemic or pandemic, act of war, civil or public disorder or terrorism, riot or civil arrest, labor conditions such as boycott, strike, lock-out, governmental action, disruption of telecommunications, failure or delay of internet services providers or internet disturbance, disruption of power or other essential services.

- 13.2 If the performance of the Services in substantial respects is prevented for a period exceeding two (2) months due to a circumstance stated herein, either Party shall have the right to terminate the Agreement in writing, without incurring any liability for compensation.

14 Other Provisions

14.1 Export Compliance

The Services may be subject to export laws and regulations of the United States and other applicable jurisdictions, and any use or transfer of the Services must be permitted under these laws and regulations. Each Party represents that it is not named on any U.S. or other applicable jurisdiction's government denied-party list (as may be amended from time to time). Subscriber shall not enable the use of the Services in violation of any U.S. or other applicable jurisdiction's export law or regulation.

14.2 Anti-corruption

Subscriber has not received or been offered any bribe, kickback, illegal or improper payment, gift, or thing of value from any Sana personnel or agents in connection with the Agreement, other than reasonable gifts and entertainment provided in the ordinary course of business. If Subscriber becomes aware of any violation of the above restriction, Subscriber will promptly notify Sana at legal@sanalabs.com.

14.3 Publicity

- 14.3.1 Unless stated otherwise in the Service Order Form, each Party consents to the other Party's use of its company logo, company name, trademarks, quotes, and general description of the Parties relationship with each other on websites, in press releases, and in other marketing and sales materials, solely for the purpose of identifying Subscriber as a customer to Sana and Sana as a supplier of Services to Subscriber.
- 14.3.2 Subscriber permits Sana, upon reasonable request and with prior written approval from Subscriber, to use Subscriber's logo, company name, and quotes as a reference account for marketing purposes and agrees, from time to time, to support Sana by participating in reference phone call(s) and other marketing events including with press, analysts, and Sana's existing or potential investors, or customers.
- 14.3.3 Other than as expressly stated herein, neither Party shall use the other Party's logos, company names, trademarks, codes, drawings, or specifications without the prior written consent of the other Party.

14.4 Relationship of the Parties

These Terms do not create a partnership, joint venture, or agency relationship between the Parties or either Parties' Affiliates. Sana and Subscriber are independent parties and neither Party will have the power to bind the other or to incur obligations on the other's behalf without the other Party's prior written consent.

14.5 Entire Agreement and Order of Precedence

The Agreement supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, proposals, or representations, written or oral, concerning its subject matter. Any term or condition stated in a Subscriber purchase order or other Subscriber order documents (excluding the Service Order Form in the Agreement) is void. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency among the following, the order of precedence shall be: (i) the Service Order Form, (ii) the DPA, (iii) the MSA, (iv), the SLA, and (v) the Policies. Titles and headings of sections of this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction of any provision of this Agreement.

14.6 Assignment

Neither Party may assign any of its rights or obligations under the Agreement, whether by operation of law or otherwise, without the other Party's prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) provided, however, either Party may assign the Agreement in its entirety, without the other Party's consent (a) to its Affiliate or (b) in connection with a merger, acquisition, corporate reorganization, or sale of all or substantially all of its assets. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, if a Party is acquired by, sells all or substantially all of its assets to, or undergoes a change of control in favor of, a direct competitor of the other Party, then such other Party may, but is not required to, terminate the Agreement upon written notice. In the event of such a termination by Sana, Sana will refund to Subscriber any prepaid but unused fees covering the remainder of the relevant Service Term or Subscription Term of the Agreement after the effective date of such termination.

14.7 Waiver

No failure or delay of either Party to exercise any right, power or remedy in connection with the Agreement will constitute a waiver of such right, power or remedy. Nothing in this Agreement will be deemed to waive or otherwise limit the right to seek public injunctive relief or any other non-waivable right.

14.8 Amendments

Any and all changes to the Agreement or Policies will be posted at www.sanalabs.com/legal and the Agreement or Policies will indicate the date they were last updated and their effective date. In the event of any material changes, Sana will notify Subscriber immediately that a revised version of the Agreement has been posted. The changes will become effective thirty (30) days after posting and Subscriber may terminate the Agreement without penalty upon written notice to Sana at legal@sanalabs.com within ten (10) business days of the effective date of the revised Agreement. Subscriber is deemed to accept and agree to be bound by any changes to the agreement when Subscriber uses the Service after the effective date of those changes.

14.9 Notices

- 14.9.1 Except as otherwise specified in the Agreement, all notices, permissions and approvals shall be in writing and shall be delivered by personal delivery, registered post, courier with the proof of delivery (using an internationally recognized courier company) or by email, to the Parties' respective contact person in the Service Order Form, or if related to orders through the online purchasing portal, to legal@sanalabs.com. Notices of termination of the Agreement by Subscriber shall be addressed to finance@sanalabs.com and the Sana account manager.
- 14.9.2 Any notices required to be given under the Agreement shall be deemed to have been received:
- (i) if delivered personally, at the time of delivery to the Party;
 - (ii) if sent by registered mail, on the second business day after handling the document over to the post office for delivery to the Party;
 - (iii) if delivered by courier, on the date stated by the courier as being the date on which the envelope containing the notice was delivered to the Party;
 - (iv) if sent by email, on the earlier of (a) the day the Party receiving the email confirms receiving the respective email or (b) on the day the email was dispatched provided that the sender has not received an error notice (notifying that the email was not delivered to the Party) and has sent the email again on the next calendar day and has not received a similar error notice.

14.10 Severability

- 14.10.1 If any provision of the Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the provision shall apply with whatever deletion or modification is necessary so that the provision is legal, valid and enforceable and gives effect to the commercial intention of the Parties.
- 14.10.2 To the extent it is not possible to delete or modify the provision, in whole or in part, under the aforementioned clause, then such provision or part of it shall, to the extent that it is illegal, invalid or enforceable, be deemed to not form part of this Agreement and the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall, subject to any deletion or modification under clause 14, not be affected and remain in effect.

14.11 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- 14.11.1 The Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Sweden, without regard to its conflicts of laws principles.
- 14.11.2 Before filing a claim, the Parties agree to try to resolve the dispute informally by sending notice pursuant to Section 14.10 (Notices) which shall include a description of the dispute, and the relief that such Party seeks. If the Parties are unable to resolve a dispute within sixty (60) calendar days, such Party may bring a formal proceeding. Any statute of limitations will be tolled during the 60-day resolution process.
- 14.11.3 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with the Agreement, or the breach, termination, or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled in accordance with the Rules of for Expedited Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (the "SCC"), unless the SCC in its discretion determines, considering the complexity of the case, the amount in dispute and other circumstances, that the Arbitration Rules shall apply. In the latter case, the SCC shall also decide whether the Arbitral Tribunal shall be composed of one (1) or three (3) arbitrators.

- 14.11.4 The seat of arbitration shall be Stockholm, Sweden. The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties.
- 14.11.5 The Parties undertake and agree that all arbitral proceedings conducted with reference to the Agreement will be kept strictly confidential. This confidentiality undertaking shall cover all information disclosed during such arbitral proceedings, as well as any decision or award that is made or declared during the proceedings. The obligations under clause 8 (Confidentiality) shall apply to such proceedings.
- 14.11.6 If Subscriber is a consumer residing within the EU/EEA, Subscriber is entitled to bring a claim to the court in Subscriber's country of residence. If a dispute has not been resolved by means of a complaint previously lodged with Sana, any Subscriber who is a consumer may use the online disputes settlement service offered by the European Commission in accordance with Article 14 of Regulation (EU) No 524/2013. This platform can be accessed by following this link: <https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/odr/>.
- 14.11.7 If Subscriber is a consumer user of the Services in the US, Subscriber agrees that disputes must be brought on an individual basis only and may not be brought as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class, consolidated, or representative proceeding. Class arbitrations, class actions, private attorney general actions, and consolidation with other arbitrations are not allowed. If for any reason a dispute proceeds in court rather than through arbitration, each Party knowingly and irrevocably waives any right to trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim.
- 14.11.8 If Subscriber is a user of the Services in the US, Subscriber agrees that if, at any time, 30 or more similar demands for arbitration are asserted against Sana or related parties by the same or coordinated counsel or entities ("Mass Filing"), ADR services will randomly assign sequential numbers to each of the Mass Filings. Claims numbered 1-10 will be the "Initial Test Cases" and will proceed to arbitration first. The arbitrators will render a final award for the Initial Test Cases within 120 days of the initial pre-hearing conference, unless the claims are resolved in advance, or the parties agree to extend the deadline. The parties will then have 90 days (the "Mediation Period") to resolve the remaining cases in mediation based on the awards from the Initial Test Cases. If the parties are unable to resolve the outstanding claims during this time, the parties may choose to opt out of the arbitration process and proceed in court by providing written notice to the other party within 60 days after the Mediation Period. Otherwise, the remaining cases will be arbitrated in their assigned order. Any statute of limitations will be tolled from the time the Initial Test Cases are chosen until Subscriber's case is chosen as described above.
